

Primary Colours:

These colours are red, blue and yellow. These colours cannot be created; they are found only in nature.

Secondary Colours:

Colours produced by mixing equal amounts of any two primary colours.

Intermediate Colours:

Colours produced by mixing equal amounts of a primary colour and a secondary colour

Red-Orange	Red-Violet	Yellow-Green
Yellow-Orange	Blue-Violet	Blue-Green

Neutral Colours:

Having no easily seen hue. White, gray and black are neutrals

